

Athira Aravind

B.Sc (Hons) Agriculture – 2nd Year

College of Agriculture, Vellayani, Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala

athiraaravind181@gmail.com

Languages: English (Fluent), Malayalam (Native)

PROFILE

Motivated agriculture undergraduate with academic and field exposure in agronomy, soil fertility assessment, and sustainable farming systems. Raised in an agrarian region of Kerala with direct involvement in rural farming communities, farmer interaction programmes, and field-based data collection. Seeking an internship with the Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) to support climate-resilient agriculture, food security initiatives, and sustainable rural development.

EDUCATION

B.Sc (Hons) Agriculture

2024 – Present

College of Agriculture, Vellayani, Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala

Relevant Coursework: Agronomy, Soil Science, Agricultural Economics, Soil Fertility Management, Environmental Studies in Disaster Management, Plant Pathology, Entomology, Livestock and Poultry Management, Agricultural Extension (Rural Sociology, Educational Psychology, Communication Skills), Crop Production Technology

ONLINE CREDIT COURSE

Indian Agricultural Development (MNR-1) – 4 Credit Course

SWAYAM (Government of India)

Enrolled – Commences January 2026

ACADEMIC & FIELD EXPERIENCE

Field Practical Training (College Curriculum)

- Conducted field observations on crop growth stages, yield attributes, and agronomic practices
- Collected soil samples and performed basic soil testing for fertility and nutrient status
- Assisted in crop production trials and demonstration plots on sustainable practices
- Maintained field records and supported preparation of academic practical reports

Exposure Visits & Training Programmes

- Participated in farmer interaction programmes and agricultural extension activities
- Observed integrated pest management, crop disease management, and sustainable farming systems
- One-day internship on operation and maintenance of agricultural machinery at Research Testing & Training Centre (RTTC), Vellayani, Dept. of Agriculture Development & Farmers' Welfare, Govt. of Kerala (18 January 2025)

AREAS OF INTEREST

- Food Security and Nutrition (SDG 2: Zero Hunger)
- Climate-Smart and Sustainable Agriculture
- Rural Development and Livelihoods
- Agricultural Extension and Policy Support

SKILL ENHANCEMENT COURSES

- Agricultural Waste Management
- R Programming for Data Analysis (basic data cleaning and descriptive analysis)
- Mushroom Production Technology
- Academic Writing and Functional Skill Development
- Seed and Seedling Production of Vegetable Crops

SKILLS

Technical: Basic soil testing and fertility assessment, agronomic field practices, agricultural data collection and recording, field survey assistance, basic data tabulation and analysis, MS Word, MS Excel (basic analysis and charts), PowerPoint

Soft: Academic and technical report writing, teamwork in field environments, communication with farmers and peers, adaptability, willingness to learn in multicultural and interdisciplinary settings